Whereas by Our Letters Patents vnder Our great Seale of England, bearing date the Sixe and twentieth day of July, in the Second yeere of Our Raigne, directed vnto Our high Treasurer of England then and for the time being, and to the Commissioners for our Treasury then and for the time being, and to the Chancellor and vnder-Treasurer, chiefe Baron, and the rest of the Barons of Our Exchequer then and for the time being, and to the Customers, Comptrollers, Searchers, and all other the Officers and Ministers of Our Ports, or belonging to Our

Collectors of the ſame for the time being, whom the ſame ſhall concerne, all ſuch ſumme and ſummes of money, as for the ſaid Cuſtomes, Subſidies and Impoſts of the ſaid Marchandizes are therein limmited, ſet downe and appointed to be paid, vpon paine of Our high indignation and diſpleaſure, and as they will anſwere the ſame at their vttermoſt perills.

And for the better maintaining of Trade and Commerce in all forraigne Commodities, WE E are further pleaſed, That euery Marchant, naturall borne Subiect, free Denizen, or Stranger, which ſhall ſhip, or tranſport, to the parts beyond the Seas (either by Coquet as Marchandizes paying Subſidie, or by Certificate as Marchandizes freed from payment of Subſidie) any forraine commodities, which haue formerly within the ſpace of one whole yeare beene brought into Our ſaid Realme, Dominion of Wales Port and Towne of Barwicke, and the Impoſt ſet and due for the ſame, hauing beene firſt duely paid, and anſwered Inwards, either by himſelfe, or any other Marchant, he ſhall haue repaied vnto him by the Collector of the ſaid Impoſt Inwards, all ſuch ſumme and ſummes of money as were formerly paid for the Impoſt of the ſaid Marchandizes, at or before the firſt landing of the ſame in the ſame Port, vpon due proofe firſt made by the ſaid Marchant, by himſelfe or others, both of the true paiment of the ſaid Impoſts Inwards in the ſame Port, and alſo of the true ſhipping and tranſporting of the ſaid Marchandizes Outwards, which proofe ſhal be made in manner and forme following; that is to ſay, Euery Marchant and other perſon or perſons ſo ſhipping forth any forraine Commodities, whereof the Impoſt hath beene firſt paid Inwards, ſhall bring to the Collector of the Subſidie Outwards, a Certificate from the Officers Inwards, who doe vſually make ſuch Certifi-

Certificates, expreſſing both the quantity and quality of the ſaid Goods, and alſo the day and time when the ſaid Impoſition was paid or compounded for Inwards, in the ſame Port, with the name or names of the Marchants that paid or compounded for the ſame; Vpon which Certificate, the ſaid Collector, his Comptroller or Surueyor ſhall take the oath of the Marchant-owner thereof, (if hee bee within the Realme) or if he be out of the Realme, then the oath of his knowne Factor, That all the goods mentioned and contained in the ſaid Certificate, are forraine Commodities, and no natiue Commodities of this Realme, and that the ſame were Imported within the ſpace of One whole yeare before, and that the ſaid Impoſition due for the ſame was truly anſwered, paid, or compounded for Inwards in the ſame Port, at or before the firſt landing thereof; But if the Marchant or Factor cannot ſo take his oath, becauſe the ſaid Goods were not firſt brought in, nor the ſaid Impoſitions due for the ſame, firſt paid by him, Then he ſhall procure the Marchant who firſt brought in the ſaid Goods, and paid the Impoſitions for the ſame, to make proofe thereof to the ſaid Collector, his Comptrollor or Surveyor, by his oath as aforeſaid (if hee bee within the Realme) or by the oath of his knowne Factor, if hee bee out of the Realme, or ſhall make ſuch other proofe for the preuention of fraudulent practices, as to all the aforeſaid Officers ſhall ſeeme reaſonable and conuenient: Vpon which proofe or proofes ſo made reſpectiuely as aforeſaid, by the ſaid Marchant or Marchants, the ſaid Collector Outwards, his Comptroller and Surueyor or any two of them, (whereof the Collector to be alwayes one) ſhall make Certificate to the Collector of the ſaid Impoſt Inwards, expreſſing the day of the entrie, the Marchants name, the quantitie

And Know ye alſo that Wee of Our eſpciall Grace, for the good of Our Marchants and enlargement of Trade, haue granted and declared, and by theſe preſents doe grant and declare Our pleaſure to be, That all and every Marchant and other perſon and perſons whatſoeuer, being Engliſh borne, Denizen or ſtranger, ſhall and may at all times, aud from time to time hereafter, at his and their wills and pleaſures, with-

out paying vnto Vs Our Heires or Succeſſors, any Cuſtome, Subſidie, Impoſt, or other duetie whatſoever, ſhipp and tranſport out of this Our Realme of England, Dominion of Wales, Port and Towne of Barwicke, into any the parts beyond the Seas, all and euery ſuch forraine Goods, Wares, and Marchandize, of what kind, quality or condition the ſame be, as he, they, or any of them ſhall firſt bring in, or haue brought into this Realme, and haue, or ſhall haue paid the Cuſtomes, Subſidies, Impoſts, and other duties thereupon, at or before the firſt landing of the ſame, to Vs due and payable, without the lett or interruption of any perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, or incurring any penalty or forfeiture, by reaſon of any Statute or Statutes prouided, or to be provided for the due payment of Cuſtomes, Subſidies, or other duties; ſo as the ſame Goods, Wares, and Marchandizes belonging to any perſon Engliſh borne, be ſhipped or laden to be tranſported out of this Kingdome into the parts beyond the Seas, within the ſpace of One whole yeere next after the firſt bringing in thereof into this Our Realme, and entring thereof in Our Cuſtome Bookes; and ſo as the ſame Goods, Wares and Marchandize belonging to Marchants Denizens, or Strangers, be ſhipped or laden to be tranſported out of this Realme, into the parts beyond the Seas, within the ſpace of eight moneths next after the firſt bringing in thereof into this Our Realme, and entring thereof in our Cuſtome-bookes; and ſo as the ſame Goods, Wares, and Marchandize of any Marchants Engliſh-borne, Denizen, or Stranger, be ſhipped and tranſported in the ſhips or veſſells belonging to any Our Subiects of this Our Realme of England, (if they may conueniently be had) And ſo as the reſpectiue proprietors and Owners of the ſame Goods, Wares, and Marchandize, and euery of them, doe,

and ſhall ſeuerally, take his and their corporall oathes, before Our Officers of the Cuſtomes whom it ſhall concerne (to whom for that purpoſe, by theſe preſents, We giue and grant ſufficient authority, power and warrant, to take ſuch oathes) that the propertie, nature and quality, of the ſaid goods ſo to be tranſported, or of any part thereof, is not, nor at any time before the full tranſporting and ſale beyond the ſeas, of the ſame, ſhall not be changed or altered, And ſo as all the ſaid Goods, Wares, and Marchandize by vertue hereof to bee tranſported, be ſhipped in that Port where the ſame were firſt brought in, Entred, Cuſtomed and Landed (vnleſſe Our Commiſſioners for Treaſurie cauſes, or Our Treaſurer of England for the time being, ſhall vppon good conſiderations for Our better ſeruice herein, giue warrant for the ſhipping thereof at ſome other place or places) And ſo as no Goods of, or belonging to any Engliſh Marchant, that haue beene, or ſhall bee keept within this Our Realme aboue the ſpace of One whole yeere; nor any the Goods of any Marchant, Denizen, or Stranger, that haue beene, or ſhall be kept within this Our Realme, aboue the ſpace of eight moneths, be at any time attempted to be ſhipped and tranſported by vertue hereof: And ſo as no Warrant be giuen or made by any the Officer or Officers of Our Cuſtomes and Subſidies Outwards, for the ſhipping and tranſporting of any Goods, Wares and Marchandize by vertue hereof, before he or they ſhall receiue true Certificate or Certificates from the Officers of Our Cuſtomes and Subſidies Inwards, vnder their hands, teſtifying that the duties for the ſame Inwards, haue beene duely paid as aforeſaid.

And further Our will and pleaſure is, that in caſe any of the ſaid forreigne Goods and Marchandize, of what kinde or qualitie ſoeuer, to be hencefoorth brought brought into this Our Realme, ſhall be bargained, ſold, or exchanged, to any perſon or perſons Engliſh borne, Denizen, or Stranger, the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo buying, or hauing the propertie altered or changed vnto him, or them, ſhall or may Ship, conuey, and tranſport the ſame, or any part thereof, for the parts beyond the Seas; (albeit, the ſame forraine Goods be of the nature and kinde of commodities, any way prohibited or reſtrained to be conueyed out of this Our Realme,) ſo as he or they do truly and fully pay and ſatisfie vnto Vs, all ſuch Cuſtomes, Subſidies, and duties as for the ſame, by, for, or vpon ſuch Tranſportation, ſhall be due and ought to be payed by him or them? as if no Law, Statute, or other thing in reſtraint or prohibition of the tranſportation of Goods of that nature, at all were had or made, and ſo as they make it appeare alſo (vpon oath to be taken as aforeſaid) to Our Officers for Goods Outwards, that they be indeede the ſame commodities ſo formerly brought in, and not otherwiſe: And alſo, ſo as no Mettall, Hides, Leather, Skinnes, Woolls, Tallow, or any other Goods, Wares, and Marchandize (being of the commodities naturally being, and growing within this Our ſaid Realme, and which ſhall not firſt be brought into this Our Realme from the parts beyond the Seas,) ſhall by couler of this Our grant be ſhipped, and tranſported out of this Our Realme or any part thereof in any wiſe, contrary to any Law, or Statute in that behalfe prouided, or to be prouided.

And therefore We will, require, and authorize you, and euery of you by vertue hereof, to ſee Our will and pleaſure herein performed according to the true meaning hereof. And for the better incouragement of Marchants in there trade of Marchandizing, Wee are further pleaſed, that euery Marchant, whether he be naturall borne Subiect, free Denizen, or Stranger, that ſhall enter any Marchandizes Inwards in any Our Ports whereſoeuer, ſhall haue alowed vnto him in his ſaid entry, all ſuch allowance and allowances of fiue in the hundred or otherwiſe, in the ſaid Impoſitions, as haue beene formerly made and allowed, by the Farmers of Our Cuſtomes, and Subſidies in Our Port of London; And as in a table of Fees (hanging in Our Cuſtome Houſe of the ſaid Port) is expreſſed. And We are alſo further pleaſed, that all ſuch Fees and duties as haue beene, and now are by the Marchants payed vnto Our Officers, ſhall ſtill be continued vnto them.

And further We will, that all Engliſh Manufacturesnot named in this Our Booke of Rates, being made of Wooll, that ſhall be carried out of this Our Realme of England, Dominion of Wales, Port and Towne of Barwicke, by way of Marchandize, ſhall pay and anſwere vnto Vs, Our Heires and Succeſſours, for Cuſtome and Subſidie, after the rate of fiue pounds vpon the hundred pounds, and ſhall pay by way of Impoſt one third part, more then the ſaid fiue pounds vpon the hundred pounds. And if the ſaid ſtuffes and Manufactures ſhall be made longer, or broader, then now they are, then they are to be regulated, valued, rated, according to their lengthes, breadthes, and weights, in anſwering to Vs the ſaid duties of Cuſtome, Subſidie, and Impoſt reſpectiuely. And that all Forraine Goods and Wares, that ſhall be carried out of this Realme by way of Marchandize, and are not mentioned in this Booke amongſt the Rates for the Cuſtome and Subſidie Outwards, Our pleaſure is they ſhall be rated, to pay Cuſtome and Subſidie Outwards according to the values and prices of the ſame Goods mentioned in this Booke, amongſt the Rates for the Subſidie Inwards. And if there ſhall happen to be brought in, or carried out of this Our Realme, any Goods, or Wares made of ſilke, or Wooll, or any other Marchandize whatſoeuer, liable to the payment of Cuſtome, Subſidie or Impoſt, which either are omitted out of this Booke, or are not now vſed to be brought in, or carried out, or by reaſon of the great diuerſities of the values of ſome Goods, (as of Diamonds, Pearles, and other ſtones and Iewels) could not be rated: Our pleaſure is, That in ſuch caſes, euery Our Cuſtomer or Collector for the time being, ſhall leauy the ſaid Cuſtome and Subſidie, according to the Value and Price of ſuch Goods, to be affirmed vpon the oath of the Marchant, or his Factor, in the preſence of the Cuſtomer, Collector, Comptroller, and Surueyor, or any one of them for the time being, vntill further order ſhall be taken therein by Vs or Our Counſell.

Prouided alwayes, and Our Will and Pleaſure is, That if at any time hereafter, it ſhall plainely appeare to Our ſaid Commiſſioners for Our Treaſurie, Treaſurer, Chancellor, vnder-Treaſurer, or Barons of Our Exchequer for the time being, or any of them, that the Rate, Value, Kinde, Name, Length, or Content of any Goods, Wares or Marchandizes mentioned in this Booke of Rates, be miſwritten, or miſtaken in the ſame, contrary to the trueth, or true meaning hereof: that then they may and ſhall reforme and amend this Booke according to the trueth and Our true meaning therein: And theſe Our preſent Letters Patents or the Inrolment, or Exemplification thereof, ſhall bee vnto Our ſaid Commiſſioners for Our Treaſurie, Treaſurer, Chancellor, vnder-Treaſurer, and Barons of Our Exchequer, a warrant and diſcharge, aſwell for the doing thereof, as alſo for the doing, performing, and executing of all ſuch further acts, matters, and things whatſoeuer, as they ſhall conceiue, may conduce to the accompliſhment of Our Seruice, Will and Pleaſure in the Premiſſes, without any other or further warrant to be ſued for, had, or obtained from Vs, Our Heires and Succeſſors, in that behalfe.

IN Witneſſe whereof, Wee haue cauſed theſe Our Letters to be made Patents: Witneſſe Our Selfe at Canbury, the One and Thirtieth day of Auguſt, in the Eleuenth yeere of Our Raigne of England, Scotland, France and Ireland.
